

Dr Julie Chen
Associate Professor (Teaching)
Assistant Dean (Learner Wellbeing)
Department of Family Medicine and Primary Care &
Bau Institute of Medical and Health Sciences Education, LKS Faculty of Medicine
The University of Hong Kong

Biography:

Dr Julie Y Chen is an academic family physician who is currently Assistant Dean (Learner Wellbeing) in the LKS Faculty of Medicine and jointly appointed as Associate Professor (Teaching) in the Department of Family Medicine and Primary Care and the Bau Institute of Medical and Health Sciences Education. Her teaching and research focus on the development of medical student professionalism and humanism in undergraduate medical education as well as the exploration of issues affecting doctor and student wellbeing. In recognition of her work in medical education, she has been awarded a Faculty Teaching Medal, two University Outstanding Teaching Awards and a Teaching Innovation Award from The University of Hong Kong. She is the Principal Investigator of the connect*ed project which was awarded HKD 5.6 million dollars in funding.